SCRIPTURE READING 1 Corinthians 12:12-14

[12] Just as a body, though one, has many parts, but all its many parts form one body, so it is with Christ. [13] For we were all baptized by one Spirit so as to form one body—whether Jews or Gentiles, slave or free—and we were all given the one Spirit to drink. [14] Even so the body is not made up of one part but of many.

PASTORAL PRAYER

UNISON BLESSING FOR THE OFFERING

God of all people. You created each one of us in unique ways. We are so different and yet we are all the same because we are your people. Help us to look beyond our differences and focus on the ways we have in common so that together we might serve you. Thank you God, for the saints who came before us who worked though sometimes difficult and challenging times to keep the faith moving forward. Lord, keep us moving forward.

Now bless our work and the contributions we give this day. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.

As we gather in worship, fellowship and service, all are welcome.

We are delighted you decided to worship with us. We hope this is only the first of many worship experiences together. Whether or not this is possible, today this is your church, the family of God for you as well as for us. Help us to make you feel at home by joining us after worship for coffee and fellowship.

- You will find in pew racks, blue colored prayer cards. These cards should be completed before worship if you have a special prayer request. If you would like a card sent to the person named on the card, please use the back to include a full name and address.
- Restrooms are located at the beginning of the East-West Hallway in the Educational Section of the church.
- If you would like to receive the most current JCPC news, email us. We will add your name to our email address list so that you receive our weekly news update. If your email address changes, please contact the church office.

Answer: "…fixing our eyes on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of faith. For the joy set before him he endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. Consider him who endured such opposition from sinners, so that you will not grow weary and lose heart." Hebrews 12:2-3, NIV
